

The Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost

St. Gregory's Episcopal Church

September 25th, 2022

PRELUDE.....Ann Klein, Music Director

THE ANGELUS

The Angelus is a traditional Christian devotion offered before Holy Eucharist and Morning and Evening Prayer in honor of the Incarnation. It is usually accompanied by the ringing of the church bell (in three sets of three for each versicle, response, and Hail Mary, followed by one set of nine for the concluding prayer). You may pray it as the bell rings, or use the silence to prepare for worship in your own way.

The first three bells

V. The angel of the Lord announced unto Mary,
R. And she conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God
pray for us sinners, now,
and at the hour of our death.

The second three bells

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.
R. Be it unto me according to your word.

Hail Mary, full of grace...

The third three bells

V. And the Word was made flesh.
R. And dwelled among us.

Hail Mary, full of grace...

The nine bells

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Pour your grace into our hearts, O Lord, that we who have known the incarnation of your Son Jesus Christ, announced by an angel to the Virgin Mary, may by his cross and passion be brought to the glory of his resurrection; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GLORIA (Taizé)

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Amos 6:1a, 4-7

A Reading from the Book of Amos.

Alas for those who are at ease in Zion,
and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria.
Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory,
and lounge on their couches,
and eat lambs from the flock,
and calves from the stall;
who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp,
and like David improvise on instruments of music;
who drink wine from bowls,
and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!
Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile,
and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

THE RESPONSE (chanted in unison)

Psalms 146

- 1 Hallelujah! Praise the Lord, O my | soul! *
I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my | being.
- 2 Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of | earth, *
for there is no help | in them.
- 3 When they breathe their last, they return to | earth, *
and in that day their thoughts | perish.
- 4 Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their | help! *
whose hope is in the Lord their | God;

- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is | in them; *
who keeps the promise for | ever;
- 6 Who gives justice to those who are op|pressed, *
and food to those who | hunger.
- 7 The Lord sets the prisoners free;
the Lord opens the eyes of the | blind; *
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed | down;
- 8 The Lord loves the righteous,
and cares for the | stranger; *
the Lord sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the | wicked.
- 9 The Lord shall reign for | ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations. Halle|lujah!

THE EPISTLE

1 Timothy 6:6-19

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to Timothy.

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time-- he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

GOSPEL ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL

Luke 16:19-31

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.' But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.' He said, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house-- for I have five brothers-- that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.' Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.' He said, 'No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

People The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON
THE NICENE CREED

The Rev. Susan Auchincloss

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The leader introduces the prayers, saying

With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Holy One, singing:

*Refrain

O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

The musical notation is a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 2/4 time signature. The melody consists of quarter notes: O (half note), God, (quarter note), hear (quarter note), us; (quarter note), hear (quarter note), our (quarter note), prayer. (quarter note). The final note 'prayer.' has a fermata over it.

(the above refrain is then repeated after each petition)

For the peace of the world; for the welfare of this fragile earth, our island home; and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Holy One.

For the universal Church; for our Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement; for the Bishops of the Diocese of New York, Mary, Allen, and Andy; for Susan and Matthew, our priests, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Holy One.

For our local spiritual communities: the Woodstock Jewish Congregation, Christ's Lutheran, Zen Mountain Monastery, the Woodstock Reformed Church, KTD Monastery, Overlook Methodist, the Woodstock Christian Science Church, Mata Giri, the Way of the Rose, St. John's Roman Catholic Church, and any other communities we now name [silent pause], let us pray to the Holy One.

For our President, Joe; our Governor, Kathy; for our local town council, and for all who hold roles of servant leadership, that there may be peace and justice on the Earth, let us pray to the Holy One.

For the Earth we share, for this town of Woodstock, which sits on unceded Lanape territory, for the indigenous peoples of this land, and for all those touched by war, gun violence, and racism let us pray to the Holy One.

For those in any need or trouble, and especially for those on our parish prayer list: Carol, Elissa, Bea, Paula, Lori, Ebro, Kirk, Alex & Kaela, Robert, Zach, Nat, Jeremy, Stephanie, Eric, Pat, Frances, Larry, Susie, Charlie, Deb, Anna and Emmett, Gini, Lorraine, Heather, Caleb Francis, Lynn, Tress, Charles & Doris, Ilfra, and any others we now name [silent pause], let us pray to the Holy One.

For all who have died in sure and certain hope that no one and nothing can ever fall outside the love of God, let us pray to the Holy One.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

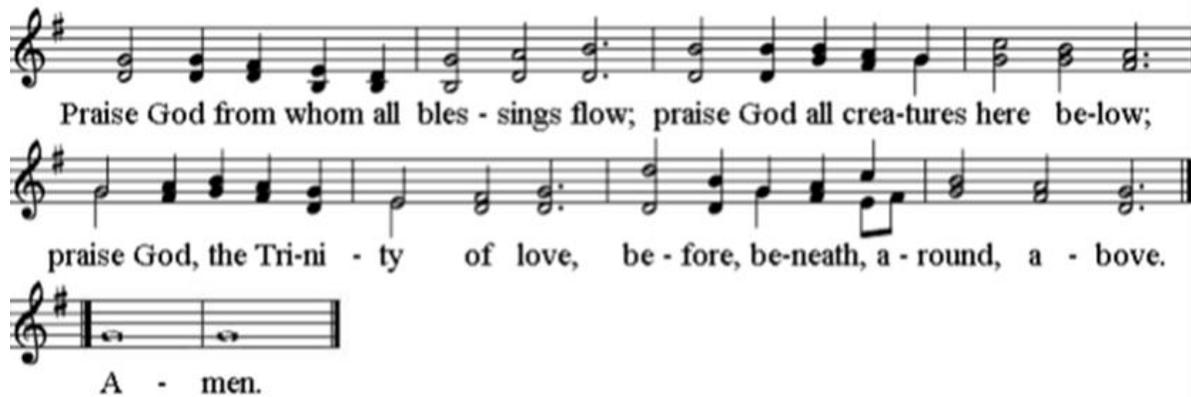

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

The people greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace. Parish announcements may be made.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM (sung by choir)

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all bles - sings flow; praise God all crea-tures here be-low;
praise God, the Tri-ni - ty of love, be - fore, be-neath, a - round, a - bove.
A - men.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues the Eucharistic Prayer.

And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues the Eucharistic Prayer.

...we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory.

The Celebrant continues the Eucharistic Prayer.

...we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

People Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

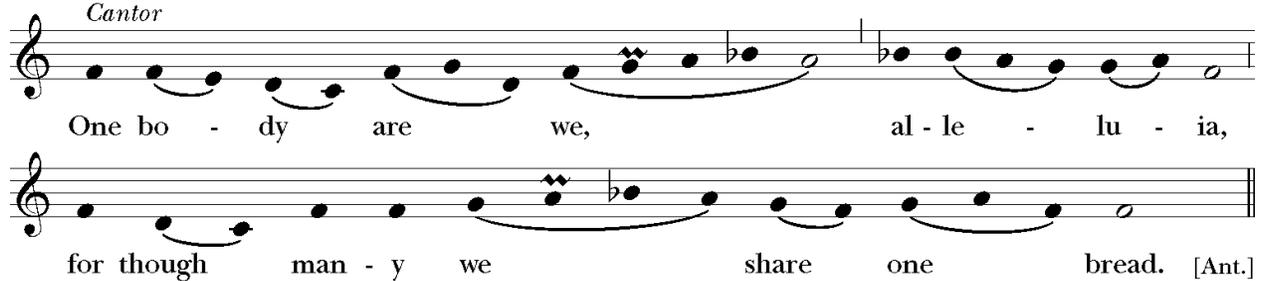

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A brief silence follows. All then joining in singing

Antiphon:

Be known to us, Lord Je - sus, in the break - ing of the bread.

Cantor

One bo - dy are we, al - le - lu - ia, for though man - y we share one bread. [Ant.]

If you are unable to physically participate in Communion, you may offer a Prayer of Spiritual Communion during this time.

A Prayer of Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. I present to you my soul and body with the earnest wish that I may always be united to you, and, since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself with you, and embrace you with all the love of my soul. Let nothing ever separate you from me. May I live in you, and may you live in me, both in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.
